

Virginia "Gini" Rossi

December 5, 1937 to January 8, 2015

Gini was born and raised in San Francisco. later her family moved to Marin County where she graduated from high school before going on to college at San Jose State and Santa Clara University, getting her training in education. She lived most of her married life with her late husband and son in Saratoga. Gini was an elementary school teacher in several Saratoga schools until just last year. She is presently a Sunday school teacher at Sacred Heart Parish in Saratoga and also tutors children in reading and creative writing.

She enjoys spending time with her grandchild and truly appreciates the community spirit here at SRC.
